High-level OECD-Russia Global Symposium
Advancing financial literacy globally:
implementation and innovation

4-5 October 2018, Moscow, Russian Federation

Dear participant,

On behalf of the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) and the Ministry of Finance of the Russian Federation (Minfin), we would like to reiterate our most sincere thanks for your active participation and excellent contribution to the OECD-Russia global symposium “Advancing financial literacy globally: implementation and innovation”, which took place on 4-5 October 2018 at the Ritz Carlton hotel in Moscow.

Thanks to the commitment and expertise of the distinguished speakers and panelists drawn from around the world, the symposium enabled participants to contribute to the fruitful and forward-looking discussions on innovative implementation approaches to deliver global progress on financial literacy..

The participation of more than 200 international experts from over 50 countries, including many high-level officials from government, central banks, financial institutions and not-for-profit organisations, contributed to the success of the event and to the relevance of the discussions held.

We hope that you found the event relevant for your work on financial education and we take this opportunity to inform you that the speaker presentations are available on the symposium web page: <http://www.oecd.org/daf/fin/financial-education/advancing-fin-lit-2018.htm>. The summary record and photographs will be added in due course.

To help us to improve the organisation and relevance of future events, we invite you to provide feedback through the attached evaluation form or via email at SecretariatINFE@oecd.org.

The OECD/INFE Secretariat looks forward to further opportunities to work and co-operate with you in the context of our future events related to financial education issues and to seeing you in Cape Town, South Africa on 23-24 May 2019. We also remain at your disposal for any request for information you might have about our current and future activities and programme of work.

On behalf of all of the organisers,

Yours sincerely,

Andrey Bokarev
